Monsoon Valley - Thai's finest and opulent wine collection, cultivated and crafted from the enriching local wine lover Chalerm Yooyidhya, a visionary for passionately authenticating a Thai wine culture right in the heart of Baan Khork Chang, a pristine valley 35 kilometers from sunny Hua Hin Beach.

This pristine vineyard was built on a former elephant corral, a sublime place where wild Asian elephants were once domesticated.

As the rich soils and green pastures grow along the coastal province, varietal such as Colombard and Chenin Blanc, Sangiovese, Rondo and Shiraz were found to be the perfect blend for this region.

Monsoon Valleys' Colombard, White Malaga, Chenin Blanc hosts a light to medium body with a crisp texture and healthy flavor of apples unripe mango, a drink, perfectly matched with the Som Tum, Thom Kha Gai dish.

Monsoon Valleys' Shiraz Pokdum known to be a fruity and young red wine, hosts a light body with a subtle and elegant berry aroma and perfectly paired with spicy dishes such as Khao Pad, Larb.

What makes Monsoon Valley's collection so unique to all wine lovers is the cultivating of grapes in different locations of Thailand, allowing wines to be crafted in various areas that differ in character and style offering an experience "exactly like nothing else".
